

Possible Voting Questions for Secretary Reed

- What was Secretary Reed's role in lowering the voting age?
- Do you have any cool stories about voting you would be willing to share with us?
- Can I register to vote online?
- Why should I make time to register and to vote?
- Should I vote at home or where I attend school?
- Why is Washington going to Vote By Mail? Will Vote By Mail affect elections?
- Does my vote really count or is voter fraud really prevalent?
- I have some questions about the 2004 Governor's Race and Election:
 - Did dead people really vote?
 - Why did felons get to vote?
 - Were ballots really lost?
- What about the 2000 Florida election? What happened there?
- Was the recount in Washington similar to the one in Florida? Were we prepared for a recount?
- Is voting our right or is it a responsibility?
- Would you explain the Electoral College?
- How have voting rights changed over history? Has full voting equality been achieved now?
- What did the Vietnam War and the draft have to do with voting?
- How do I cast an informed vote? For example, how do I know which judge to vote for?
- Why are the voters' pamphlets written in a way that is confusing? Why can't they be clear?
- Why is the Washington State Archives important to me- and what does it have to do with voting and civics?
- What are all the divisions of the Office of Secretary of State and how do they connect?
- Can anyone use the State Library? Where is it located?